

Launch Your Career in Biotech

A Pathmaker-certified training program provides critical skills needed for high-demand jobs in the life sciences

Train in 8-weeks for a New Career

The life sciences is a vibrant, diverse, and exciting field. With high demand for new talent in this growing industry, you can equip yourself with the skills you need to succeed with a unique training program developed in partnership with industry and academic leaders.

Funded by the Massachusetts Life Sciences Center, and developed in partnership with Northeastern University's College of Professional Studies, you may be eligible for scholarship funding to pursue an exciting new career!

Lab Skills

December 1, 2025 – February 6, 2026

Cell & Gene Therapies

February 17 - April 9, 2026

Biomanufacturing Technician

May 18 - July 10, 2026

CMC Specialist

May 18 - July 10, 2026

*Students currently enrolled at Northeastern University are not eligible for this program

Jobs in Biotech

- Lab technician
- Manufacturing Associate
- Lab Support Associate
- Quality Assurance
- Quality Control

Fully-funded training with $3,000 stipend provided to eligible students.

Apply Today!

